F. Objection or submission

The specific parts of the application that this objection or submission relates to are:

A sailing club is such an important facility for our town: youth development, life long skills for our young people as well as understanding of the ocean. A boating club allows this community to expand & support up & coming sailors in this area. Do we really want to

The specific parts of the application that this objection or submission relates to are:

A sailing club is an important facility for youth development, learning life long skills and an understanding of the ocean. So important in a town so close to the sea.
